

Rocky Mountain Urgent Care President Nathaniel J. Moore, MD
Named Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2007 Award
Winner in the Rocky Mountain Region

Award Recognizes Entrepreneurial Excellence in Social Responsibility Category

Denver, Colorado, June 22, 2007– Rocky Mountain Urgent Care, metro Denver’s premier provider of urgent care medical services, today announced that its President and Founder, Nathaniel J. Moore, MD received the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2007 Award in the Social Responsibility category in the Rocky Mountain Region. According to Ernst & Young, the award recognizes outstanding entrepreneurs who are building and leading dynamic, growing businesses. Dr. Moore was selected by an independent panel of judges and the award was presented at an Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year gala event in the Seawell Ballroom at The Denver Center for the Performing Arts on June 21, 2007.

“I am extremely surprised and grateful to be recognized with this award by Ernst & Young. I’m not a businessman by training and didn’t really consider myself an entrepreneur. I’m a doctor, who has simply had the good fortune of putting an excellent team together. This incredible team, which includes everyone from our front desk staff and clinical staff to our doctors and other providers, and our administration, is responsible for the success of Rocky Mountain Urgent Care. The nominees for this award include some impressive and large companies. I am honored to be considered in the same breath as them, much less to have won an award in their midst.”

Dr. Moore is a graduate of Duke University School of Medicine and Stanford University. Originally from North Carolina, Dr. Moore came to Colorado in 1995 for his residency program in family medicine at the University of Colorado.

Rocky Mountain Urgent Care has urgent care clinics in Aurora, Englewood, Commerce City, Westminster and Boulder, and plans to add two more clinics this year. The clinics provide walk-in medical services for urgent medical problems and injuries and are open every day.

The Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards program celebrates its 21st anniversary this year and continues to honor entrepreneurs who have demonstrated excellence in such areas as innovation, financial performance, and personal commitment to their businesses and communities.

“Ernst & Young is honored to recognize extraordinary business leaders, such as Dr. Moore, and the companies they have built,” said Jim Wilson, Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year program director for the Rocky Mountain Region.

As a Rocky Mountain Region award winner, Dr. Moore is now eligible for consideration for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year 2007 national program. Award winners in several national categories, as well as the overall national Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year award winner, will be announced at the annual awards gala in Palm Springs, California on November 17, 2007. The national Entrepreneur Of The Year celebration is part of Ernst & Young’s Strategic Growth Forum. The overall national Entrepreneur Of The Year award recipient is then considered for the world event held in Monte Carlo.
